JOIN FRIENDS!

The Friends of the Uxbridge Free Public Library are people just like you who volunteer their time to support and promote the services and programs of the Library. The Friends organization was founded as a nonprofit, volunteer-based group made up of community members and an Executive Board, which ensures yearly and long-term goals are met.

By becoming a member of the Friends of the Uxbridge Free Public Library, you help to support reaching those goals! Your contribution assists with funding many things such as:

- The Annual Summer Reading Program
- Adult and Children's Programs & Activities
- Library Materials and Equipment
- Museum Passes
- Computer Software
- Book and Bake Sale
- and More

We Can't Do It Without Your Help!

Please complete the form and submit along with your dues payment.

Your membership is for 2018.

Make checks payable to: Friends of the Uxbridge Free Public Library.
