

PAGE TURNERS

a selection of new and upcoming releases

April 2022

H= available on Hoopla

L = available on Libby

Fiction:

Reputation by Lex Croucher (4/5)

Bridgerton fans will enjoy this hard and humorous look into a bookish girl's journey through Regency society

The Wrong Victim by Allison Brennan (4/26)

After a tragic act of violence, a group of FBI agents investigate a small fishing town and the charter company at the center of it

The Prophet's Wife by Libbie Grant (4/5)

A sweeping, lyrical look at the founding of Mormonism, seen through Joseph Smith's first wife Emma

Sea of Tranquility by Emily St. John Mandel (4/5)

This apocalyptic time travel unexpectedly ties together characters living four centuries apart—for fans of Station Eleven

True Biz by Sara Novic (4/5)

Combining English and American Sign Language, Novic's second novel is a funny and heartfelt love letter to Deaf culture

Kaiju Preservation Society by John Scalzi (3/15)

At his friend's behest, a delivery driver does independent contract work for an alternate dimension Jurassic Park

Nonfiction:

Deaf Utopia by Nyle DiMarco (4/19)

Memoir of the model/actor/Deaf activist's experiences growing up in a multigenerational Deaf family in Queens

In On the Joke by Shawn Levy (4/5)

Fans of The Marvelous Mrs. Maisel will enjoy this ode to pioneering female comedians like Joan Rivers and Phyllis Diller

Forest Walking by Peter Wohlleben and Jane Billingham (4/26)

From the renowned forester and his editor, a guide on how to thoughtfully observe the forests around you

The Great Stewardess Rebellion by Nell McShane Wulfhart (4/19)

Stewardesses' struggles for labor rights in the '60s and '70s helped improve gender equity across all sectors – for fans of Pan Am and Mad Men

Life on the Rocks by Juli Berwald (4/5)

Science writer compares the daunting task of saving coral reefs with helping her daughter navigate mental illness

Ancestor Trouble by Maud Newton (3/29)

Writer of the article "America's Ancestry Craze" explores the US's fascination with genealogy through researching her own family tree

