

PAGE TURNERS

a selection of new and upcoming releases

February 2022

H= available on Hoopla

L = available on Libby

Fiction:

Reminders of Him by Colleen Hoover (1/18)

Heartbreaking yet hopeful story of a woman released from prison who seeks to reunite with her daughter

Sierra Six by Mark Greaney (2/15)

An action-packed spy thriller about a junior CIA operative determined to finish a botched job

To Paradise by Hanya Yanagihara (L, 1/11)

A generation-spanning, alternate history set in New York's Washington Square—from the author of A Little Life

Love & Other Disasters by Anita Kelly (L, 1/18)

Things heat up between two rivals on a competitive cooking show in this upbeat romantic comedy

Real Easy by Marie Rutkoski (1/18)

A dancer at a club is murdered after driving a new coworker home—for fans of Gillian Flynn and Tana French

The Last Grand Duchess by Bryn Turnbull (2/8)

Tsar Nicholas II's daughter Olga narrates this sweeping, compelling tale of the last days of the Romanov dynasty

Nonfiction:

From Hollywood with Love by Scott Meslow (2/1)

A fun and insightful profile of the romantic comedy films from their 1990s peak to their resurgence today

Foreverland by Heather Havrilesky (2/8)

An advice columnist's strikingly funny and enlightening examination of her own marriage and marriage as a whole

The Power of Regret by Daniel H. Pink (2/1)

Well-researched self-help book about how regret can have a positive impact on one's life

Scoundrel by Sarah Weinman (2/22)

The fascinating true story of convicted murderer Edgar Smith and how he manipulated the courts to earn his freedom

The Urge by Carl Erik Fisher (1/25)

An addiction psychiatrist's illuminating study attempts to understand the puzzling nature of addiction

Art & Crime by Stefan Koldehoff and Tobias Timm (1/25)

A look at the clandestine, enticing art world and the crime concealed within it

