

New Releases:The Boy from the Woods* by Harlan Coben

A suspenseful tale about missing children, secrets among the rich and powerful, and a protagonist with a mysterious past

The Book of Longings* by Sue Monk Kidd

The author of The Secret Life of Bees returns with a novel set in the time of the New Testament with a strong female protagonist who becomes the wife of Jesus

Joy at Work* by Marie Kondo and Scott Sonenshein

Does your workplace “spark joy?” Find happiness by staying organized at work!

The Glass Hotel* by Emily St. John Mandel

A complex, character-driven literary mystery, from the author of Station Eleven

The House of Kennedy* by James Patterson

New non-fiction from the best-selling thriller author about the Kennedy family!

The Book of Lost Friends* by Lisa Wingate

The author of Before We Were Yours returns with this female-centered historical novel set in the post-Civil War South and today

Old Hits:In Cold Blood* by Truman Capote

A sobering true crime classic, often considered the first “non-fiction novel”

Evicted: Poverty and Profit in the American City* by Matthew Desmond

A humanizing book that follows eight families experiencing poverty and housing insecurity in Milwaukee during the 2008 financial crisis – 2017 Pulitzer Prize winner

My Brilliant Friend* by Elena Ferrante

A highly acclaimed story of female friendship in a changing Italy – after reading, check out the three other “Neapolitan Novels” and the HBO tv series

Braiding Sweetgrass* by Robin Wall Kimmerer

A book from a botanist and member of the Citizen Potawatomi Nation about the interdependence of humans and the natural world

The Plot Against America* by Philip Roth

An alternate history novel about a Jewish family living in an America where FDR loses to Lindbergh – now an HBO TV show

Aristotle and Dante Discover the Secrets of the Universe* by Benjamin Alire Saenz

A hopeful coming-of-age story with insights about family and friendship – for those who liked The Sun is Also a Star

