

PAGE
TURNERS

February 2020

Next Meeting: Tuesday, April 14th 2020
at the Senior Center

Fiction:

In The Shadow of Vesuvius* by Tasha Alexander

A historical mystery with two narratives – one of them is in Pompeii before the eruption of Mt. Vesuvius!

Beating About the Bush* by M.C. Beaton

The latest (and possibly last) book in Beaton's Agatha Raisin amusing mystery series

Big Lies in a Small Town* by Diane Chamberlain

A woman is mysteriously released from prison to restore a mural... and uncovers some buried secrets and "Big lies in a small town!"

Westering Women* by Sandra Dallas

A female-centered story of a mother and daughter heading to the American frontier

Perfect Little Children* by Sophie Hannah

A psychological suspense novel with family secrets aplenty

When We Were Vikings* by Andrew David MacDonald

An coming of age story, told from the perspective of someone with special needs

Nonfiction:

Tightrope: Americans Reaching for Hope* by Nicholas D. Kristof and Sheryl WuDunn

Real-life stories showing the impact of societal issues like drug addiction and incarceration

Before and After* by Judy Christie and Lisa Wingate

An account of the real-life events behind Lisa Wingate's Before We Were Yours

The Nature of Life and Death* by Patricia Wiltshire

For those interested in forensic science, ecology and botany

The Great Pretender: The Undercover Mission that Changed Our Understanding of Madness* by Susannah Cahalan

A book about a 1970s study where participants went undercover into asylums...

SAM: One Robot, A Dozen Engineers, and the Race to Revolutionize the Way We Build* by Jonathan Waldman

The author of Rust returns with a compelling narrative about the development of a robotic bricklayer

The Ship of Dreams: The Sinking of the Titanic and the End of the Edwardian Era* by Gareth Russell

A well-researched historical account of the Titanic and six of its first-class passengers