

PAGE TURNERS

a selection of new and upcoming releases

July 2021

H= available on Hoopla

L = available on Libby

Fiction:

Survive the Night* by Riley Sager (6/29)

A college student unwittingly accepts a ride from the man who may be responsible for her friend's murder

It's Better This Way* by Debbie Macomber (7/13)

A woman finds love again after a messy divorce in this heartwarming romance about family and moving on

China Room* by Sunjeev Sahota (7/13)

A Punjabi woman in 1929 and an Anglo-Indian man in 1999 struggle to seek freedom from the oppressive forces around them—based on the author's family history

The Forest of Vanishing Stars* by Kristin Harmel (7/6)

Kidnapped and raised in the wilderness, a young German woman helps a group of Jews escape Nazi Germany

While We Were Dating* by Jasmine Guillory (7/13)

An advertising executive and an actress pretend to date and end up with real feelings for each other in this upbeat romance

The Final Girl Support Group* by Grady Hendrix (7/13)

The 'final girl' horror film trope is fully realized when a killer stalks a survivors' support group, picking them off one by one

Nonfiction:

New Women in the Old West: From Settlers to Suffragists* by Winifred Gallagher (7/20)

The role of women in the western United States, often overlooked, is highlighted in this engaging narrative

Life on the Line: Young Doctors Come of Age in a Pandemic* by Emma Goldberg (6/8)

A sobering portrait of six New York City medical students who graduate early to work on the frontlines of the COVID-19 pandemic

The Reason for the Darkness of the Night: Edgar Allan Poe and the Forging of American Science* by John Tresch (L, 6/8)

A new biography of the gothic writer explores how the scientific knowledge of the day influenced his work

Glory Days: The Summer of 1984 and the 90 Days That Changed Sports and Culture Forever* by L. Jon Wertheim (6/15)

An engaging nostalgia tour into summer 1984 and the events that shaped the modern sports industry

Fox and I: an Uncommon Friendship* by Catherine Raven (7/6)

A biologist reflects on nature and solitude when she strikes up an unlikely kinship with a wild fox in rural Montana

The Woman They Could Not Silence* by Kate Moore (H, L 6/22)

From the author of Radium Girls comes the riveting story of Elizabeth Packard, a housewife confined to an asylum against her will.