

PAGE
TURNERS

March 2020

Next Meeting: Tuesday, April 14th 2020
at the Senior Center

Fiction:

The Night Watchman* by Louise Erdrich

A powerful biographical novel based on the life of the author's grandfather, set on a Native American reservation in the 1950s

Writers & Lovers* by Lily King

An empathetic romance about a struggling young female writer – set in MA

The Other Mrs.* by Mary Kubica

An addictive psychological thriller set in small-town Maine

The Cactus League* by Emily Nemens

An unconventional, baseball-themed story set in Arizona with a large cast of characters

Weather* by Jenny Offill

A stylistically complex satirical story focused on society and culture today, with a librarian as the protagonist

Saint X* by Alexis Schaitkin

A woman's sister was murdered when the protagonist was a child; years later, she is obsessed with finding out the truth – for fans of Emma Cline's The Girls and Lauren Groff's Fates and Furies

Nonfiction:

Suffrage: Women's Long Battle for the Vote* by Ellen Carol Dubois

Celebrate the 100th anniversary of the passage of the 19th amendment with this history of the women's suffrage movement!

Food Fix* by Mark Hyman

A call to overhaul the nation's food system, with a focus on nutritional and environmental science – from the author of Food: What the Heck Should I Eat?

When Time Stopped: A Memoir of My Father's War and What Remains*
by Ariana Neumann

A powerful memoir focused on a Holocaust survivor and his family

The Splendid and the Vile* by Erik Larson

The acclaimed author of The Devil in the White City writes about Churchill and London during the Blitz

The Boston Massacre: A Family History* by Serena R. Zabin

Celebrate the 250th anniversary of a key moment in American revolutionary history!

Frida in America: The Creative Awakening of a Great Artist* by Celia Stahr

For those interested in learning how Frida Kahlo's three years in the United States influenced her art and identity

