

PAGE TURNERS

a selection of new and upcoming releases

November 2021

H= available on Hoopla

L = available on Libby

Fiction:

The Every* by Dave Eggers (11/16)

A woman infiltrates a powerful tech company in this absurd satire follow-up to The Circle

The Sentence* by Louise Erdrich (11/9)

The ghost of a surly customer haunts a Minneapolis bookstore in this amusing and poignant novel from the award winning author

All Her Little Secrets* by Wanda M. Morris (11/2)

In this fast-paced thriller, a lawyer gets caught in a dangerous conspiracy after her boss's murder

The Memoirs of Stockholm Sven* by Nathaniel Ian Miller (10/26)

A man who lives alone on an Arctic fjord has a chance encounter with a stranger that changes the rest of his life

Silverview* by John le Carre (H, 10/14)

Le Carre's last book is a world-weary cat-and-mouse game about British intelligence's investigation into a bookstore owner

A Marvellous Light* by Freya Marske (11/2)

Two British civil servants hunt down whoever is targeting all of the magical people in Edwardian era England

Nonfiction:

Our First Civil War* by H.W. Brands (11/9)

This narrative history examines the conflict between British loyalists and revolutionary colonists during the American Revolution

Wildcat* by John Boessenecker (11/2)

The story of Pearl Hart, one of the most famous female bandits in the Western United States

The Least of Us* by Sam Quinones (11/2)

The bestselling author of Dreamland tells the harrowing next chapter of opiate addiction in the United States

The Farmer's Lawyer* by Sarah Vogel (11/2)

Lawyer Vogel recounts her time defending North Dakota farmers against the US government in the 1980s

The Writing of the Gods: The Race to Decode the Rosetta Stone* by Edward Dolnick (10/19)

A conversational, narrative nonfiction about the discovery and deciphering of the Rosetta Stone

The Last King of America: The Misunderstood Reign of George III* by Andrew Roberts (11/9)

A nuanced, thoughtful history of King George III, the British king who lost the American colonies