

PAGE TURNERS

a selection of new and upcoming releases

March 2022

H= available on Hoopla

L = available on Libby

Fiction:

The Violin Conspiracy* by Brendan Slocumb (L, 2/1)

A Black musician's violin/family heirloom is stolen right before a prestigious competition

Delilah Green Doesn't Care* by Ashley Herring Blake (2/22)

A photographer returns to her small town for a job and falls for the mean girl who bullied her in high school

The Tobacco Wives* by Adele Myers (3/1)

For fans of Fiona Davis—a woman takes on the tobacco industry in 1940s North Carolina

The Last Confessions of Sylvia P.* by Lee Kravetz (3/8)

Three intertwined narratives retell the story of Sylvia Plath and her book The Bell Jar—similar to The Hours

Booth* by Karen Joy Fowler (3/8)

Historical saga about the secretive family of John Wilkes Booth as they inch closer to the American Civil War

The Recovery Agent* by Janet Evanovich (3/22)

A mercenary treasure hunter must reluctantly work with her ex-husband to save her family's home

Nonfiction:

52 Ways to Walk* by Annabel Streets (2/22)

A brief, approachable book about the health benefits of walking and the latest scientific research about it

The Bald Eagle: The Improbable Journey of America's Bird* by Jack Emerson Davis (3/1)

Explores the history of the bald eagle, from almost becoming extinct twice to revered national symbol

The Other Dr. Gilmer* by Benjamin Gilmer (3/1)

A rural doctor investigates his predecessor's criminal past and is confronted with conflicting accounts

The Far Land* by Brandon Presser (3/8)

A travel writer visits the South Pacific and reexamines the true story of Mutiny on the Bounty

Tell Me Everything* by Erika Krouse (3/15)

Part memoir & part true crime—a P.I. investigates a sexual assault case while grappling with her own past

Truly, Madly: Vivien Leigh, Laurence Olivier, and the Romance of the Century* by Stephen Galloway (3/22)

New insights into the wild and passionate romance between Vivien Leigh and Laurence Olivier

